Speakers

Gerard L. Hanley Ph.D. is the Executive Director of MERLOT (Multimedia Educational Resource for Learning and Online Teaching at www.merlot.org) and Senior Director for Academic Technology Services for the California State University, Office of the Chancellor. At MERLOT, he directs the development and sustainability of MERLOT’s consortium of higher education systems and institutions, professional societies, corporations, and other digital libraries. At the CSU, Gerry oversees the development and implementation of systemwide academic technology initiatives and integrated electronic library resources supporting CSU's 23 campuses. Previously held positions in the CSU include Professor of Psychology, Director of Faculty Development and Director of Strategic Planning.

Dr. Ellen Junn joined Fresno State in June 2008 as the Associate Provost and works closely with the Provost, the President’s Cabinet, Deans, and Provost Leadership Team in the areas of budget planning, faculty professional development, academic technology, accreditation, international exchange and study abroad, and community and service learning. She has a passion for supporting faculty and students in the learning enterprise.

She earned her B.S. in Psychology (cum laude and High Honors) from the University of Michigan and her M.A. and Ph.D. in Cognitive and Developmental Psychology from Princeton University. Prior to coming to Fresno, she started her career at Indiana University for two years, and has enjoyed over 20 years in the CSU—first at San Bernardino, and most recently at CSU, Fullerton where she served in a variety of administrative positions for 17 years.

Dr. Junn’s research interests and publications include college teaching effectiveness, faculty development, educational equity and diversity issues, social cognitive development, early childhood education and advocacy. She is co-editor of Child Growth and Development, an annualized reader published by McGraw-Hill now in its 17th edition. Dr. Junn also served as the Past President for the California Association for the Education of Young Children and is a former member of the Governing Board of the National Association for the Education of Young Children.
