

Teaching and Learning Certificate for Graduate Students

The Faculty Development Center in partnership with the Office of Graduate Studies is proud to offer a Teaching and Learning Certificate for Graduate Students who are considering a career in higher education.

Are you a new or returning graduate student on campus?

Are you getting ready to teach or considering learning more about teaching?

Then sign up to complete a teaching certificate!

The certificate requires completing 5 modules totaling 12 hours over two semesters. Graduate students who begin the certificate program in the spring will need to complete some of the 12 hours in Fall 2018.
