

Faculty Day 2009

Active Learning as a Teaching Strategy

Wednesday, August 19 • 8:30 to 11:30 am
Mackey Auditorium • Ruby Gerontology Center

Agenda

8:30 am	Continental Breakfast
9:00 am	Welcome Remarks Dr. Ephraim Smith, Vice President for Academic Affairs Dr. Milton A. Gordon, University President
9:15 am	Keynote Speaker – Dr. Jim Eison, University of South Florida “Active Learning Strategies for Creating Excitement in Your Classroom: A Compendium of Instruction Possibilities”
	 Jim Eison is a psychologist who has made teaching, learning and faculty development in higher education the focus of his professional career. He is presently Professor of Higher Education in the Department of Adult, Career & Higher Education at the University of South Florida in Tampa, Fla. He was founding director of Southeast Missouri State University's Center for Teaching and Learning, and founding director of the Center for Teaching Enhancement at the University of South Florida. Dr. Eison received his BA in Psychology from SUNY New Paltz and his Ph.D. in Psychology from the University of Tennessee, Knoxville.
11:30 am	Adjournment

In order to obtain an accurate count, please RSVP to Anh Nelson (anhnelson@fullerton.edu) by 5:00 pm Friday August 14

Presented by The Office of the President, Vice President for Academic Affairs, and The Faculty Development Center