

Faculty Development Center Fall Grants Program

Deadline Monday, November 2, 2009 at 5:00 p.m.

☞ International Travel Grants

Each year, the President provides funding (up to $1,000) to defray expenses for faculty who have been invited to present at, or participate in, significant international conferences, meetings, and other related research and professional activities. Fall application is for travel taken between July 1, 2009 and December 31, 2009.

☞ Faculty-Student Research/Creative Activity Grants

This undergraduate research/creative activity grant is aimed at encouraging faculty across the campus to involve undergraduates in substantive ways in their research or creative activities. The emphasis of this initiative is to provide a high quality experience for undergraduates by introducing them to the research or creative paradigms of a discipline through close working relationships with faculty. Students may apply up to $1,000 to support their project.

☞ Teaching Mini Grants

The purpose is to support innovations in teaching and learning activities in a variety of ways, including support for teaching-related supplies, materials, services and travel. Faculty may apply for $50 to $300 to support their teaching project.
