Writing across the Curriculum
Travel Grant Application

Description: To support the professional development of Writing Across the Curriculum (WAC) Certificate recipients, the WAC Program is offering a Travel Grant. This grant can be used for travel to a WAC- or writing-related scholarly conference. Examples of such conferences include the International WAC conference and the Conference on College Composition and Communication. Two grants of up to $1000 are available this year.

Eligibility: WAC Certificate recipients may apply. Past WAC travel-grant recipients can re-apply after five years and after completing the post-grant requirement (see below).

Application Requirements:

A 250-300-word proposal that

1) Describes the course(s) to which the applicant hopes to apply WAC theories and pedagogies. Is this a course you know you’ll be teaching in the next 2-3 semesters, or is this a class you hope to teach soon?

2) Describes the conference to which the applicant plans to travel. Please hyperlink the conference’s homepage in your proposal.

3) Describes the applicant’s conference plans (e.g., presenting a paper, attending certain types of panels or workshops, etc.)

If a paper is being presented, please include a 50-100-word abstract and evidence of acceptance to the conference.

Post Travel Grant Requirement:

Travel Grant recipients will share either the writing-related ideas they presented at the attended conference, or the most useful, writing-related information they learned at that conference at a 1-hour WAC Lunch and Learn at Pollak Library in the academic year following their travel.

To Apply:

Before October 10, please email your proposal with your

1) Name,
2) Department(s) in which you teach at CSUF,
3) Name(s), Section number(s), and semester(s) of the course(s) you are teaching in Fall 2019, and
4) Year you received your WAC Certificate* to Leslie Bruce at lbruce@fullerton.edu.

Please include “WAC grant application” in your subject line.

*WAC Portfolios submitted by September 5, 2019 will be evaluated before October 5th.
